| Review Triggers | The review triggers that would reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate include: |
|---|---|
| | <ul><li>a significant dealing of the product to consumers outside the target market occurs</li><li>a significant number of complaints is received from customers in relation to their purchase or use of the product that reasonably suggests that the TMD is no longer appropriate</li><li>a material change to the product or the terms and conditions of the product occurs which would cause the TMD to no longer be appropriate</li><li>a notification from ASIC requiring immediate cessation of product distribution or particular conduct in relation to the product</li><li>information from other sources about consumer outcomes, including from the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).</li></ul>The Product Governance Framework includes regular consideration of whether there has been a review trigger following each distribution information report. That consideration is by reference to paragraphs 153 to 156 of RG 274 Product design and distribution obligations. |
| Review Periods | The first review, and each ongoing review, must be completed within each consecutive 12 month period from the start date or earlier where necessary. |
